

European Commission

How to best attract talented researchers?

Regional Workshop

24 January 2017, Brno

CEITEC – Central European Institute of Technology, Kamenice 753/5

10:00	Registration
10:30	Welcome and opening address Jiri Nantl – Director, Central European Institute of Technology, Masaryk University (CZ)
10:45	Introduction to the event Lukas Levak – Director, Department of Research and Development, Ministry of Education, Youth and Sports of the Czech Republic (CZ)
11:00	Charter and Code (C&C) & the Human Resources Strategy for Researchers (HRS4R) Why should you know about this? Irmela BRACH – European Commission, DG RTD Questions & Answers
12:00	What are the benefits/impact for institutions and researchers? Karen Vandeveld – Ghent University (BE) Questions & Answers
12:30	Tips and tricks to make your implementation a success Nathalie Modjeska – University of Montpellier (FR) Questions & Answers
13:00	Lunch buffet
14:00	The Human Resources Strategy for Researchers (HRS4R) How to implement the principles of Charter and Code? Irmela BRACH – European Commission, DG RTD Questions & Answers
15:00	'HANDS-ON' session How to fill a gap-analysis? How to establish an action plan? Nathalie Modjeska – University of Montpellier (FR) Karen Vandeveld – Ghent University (BE) Questions & Answers
17:00	Concluding Remarks Marek Hajduk – Director General of the Division of Science and Technology of the Ministry of Education, Science, Research and Sport (SK)
17:30	End of the meeting